

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA - TROOP 805

ACTIVITY INFORMATION FORM

Whale Watching/ Butano Creek Camping – Sat-Sun, Jan 21–22, 2017

OSPL: [To Be Determined]

What: An afternoon of Whale Watching with the Oceanic Society in Half Moon Bay. The annual gray whale migration is one of the world's most magnificent and accessible wildlife spectacles. Each year, thousands of gray whales migrate from their summer feeding grounds around Alaska down to Baja California and back. Their migration pathway follows closely along the California coast, providing us with an outstanding opportunities for coastal whale watching in Half Moon Bay.

Afterward, we'll head down the coast to beautiful Butano Creek in Pescadero where we'll sleep in cabins (25 per cabin), cook, and (weather permitting), see some banana slugs (maybe Mr. Screechfield can teach us the Banana Slug Song!) on a hike.

When: Saturday, January 21 – Sunday, January 22, 2017

Meet: 8:30 a.m., at Danville Park & Ride (we leave promptly)

Cost: $80. Includes whale watching, transportation, camping, and all meals.

Return: 5:00 p.m., at Danville Park & Ride

Uniform: Class A for travel (and bring Class B)

Details: See T805 website. Oceanic Society forms may be required.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA - TROOP 805
INFORMED CONSENT, RELEASE AND PERMISSION TO TREAT

Whale Watching/ Butano Creek Camping – Sat-Sun, Jan 21–22, 2017

I hereby give permission for my son, _____, to attend this outing with Boy Scout Troop 805. I understand that participation in Scouting activities involves a certain degree of risk and can be physically, mentally, and emotionally demanding. I have carefully considered the risk involved and have given consent for myself or my child to participate in this activity. I also understand that participation in this activity is entirely voluntary and requires participants to abide by applicable rules and standards of conduct. I release the Boy Scouts of America, the local council, the activity coordinators, and all employees, volunteers, participants, related parties, or other organizations associated with the activity from any and all claims or liability arising out of this participation.

If this activity involves archery or firearms, I hereby give express consent for a qualified range instructor to furnish BSA-approved archery or firearm equipment to the participant for the purpose of instruction in the safe handling and use of such equipment and related activities at designated ranges.

I hereby give permission for the adult leaders to give over-the-counter (OTC) medicines as needed (e.g. Aleve for headache, fever, inflammation, pain; Benadryl for allergic reactions, nasal allergies, hives and itching; Lomotil for diarrhea; etc.) In case of emergency involving my child, I understand every effort will be made to contact me. In the event I cannot be reached, I hereby give my permission to the medical provider selected by the adult leader in charge to secure proper treatment, including hospitalization, anesthesia, surgery, or injections of medication for my child. Medical providers are authorized to disclose to the adult in charge examination findings, test results, and treatment provided for purposes of medical evaluation of the participant, follow-up and communication with the participant's parents or guardian, and/or determination of the participant's ability to continue in the program activities. (All reasonable measures will be taken to safeguard the health and safety of the Troop's members.)
