

PERSONAL EQUIPMENT

Every Scout and leader should bring their own personal equipment. The following is a sample checklist:

- Full Scout uniform: shirt, shorts, socks and belt
- Light jacket and light sweater or sweatshirt (light layers of clothing are lighter and warmer than a heavy jacket.)
- Light rain suit or poncho
- Extra pair of shoes or boots
- Extra Scout uniform parts: shirt, socks, etc.
- Underwear and tee shirts (at least 4 sets)
- Extra socks (at least 4 pairs)
- Sweatshirt
- Swim trunks
- Hat
- Handkerchiefs or Kleenex packs
- Shorts and at least one pair of long pants
- Lightweight long or short sleeve shirts (non-uniform)
- Backpack (especially for overnigher) or duffel bag
- Sleeping bag
- Sleeping pad or lightweight air mattress
- Eating utensils (for in-camp cooking and overnigher): minimum of a bowl, spoon and a Sierra cup
- Canteen or water bottle
- Toilet kit: soap, washcloth, toothbrush, toothpaste, comb, towel

- Small personal first aid kit
- Small flashlight and extra batteries
- Small pocket-knife (NO SHEATH KNIVES)
- Money: $75-$100 plus money for merit badge materials (see pages 11 and 12) allows an adequate amount of spending money in camp
- Scout Handbook, merit badge pamphlets, etc.
- Pen/pencil, notebook, paper, stamps, envelopes or postcards

OPTIONAL EQUIPMENT

- Camera
- Mosquito repellent and sunglasses
- Fishing gear
- Book

PLEASE DO NOT BRING THE FOLLOWING:

- Sheath knives
- Axes
- Firearms of any kind
- Fireworks
- Drugs (non-prescription)
- Open toe shoes or sandals